

RESOLUTION

PARENT INVOLVEMENT IN SITE-BASED DECISION MAKING

- Whereas, One of the Objects of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers is "to bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the education of children and youth"; and
- Whereas, Article III(d) of the National PTA Bylaws states "the PTA organization shall seek to participate in the decision making process establishing school policy"; and
- Whereas, It is the role of the Delaware State PTA to encourage parental involvement, an essential part of the PTA mission, by promoting an environment in which parents are valued as a primary influence in their children's lives and essential partners in their children's education and development; and
- Whereas, The State of Delaware has created legislation, and some school boards and school districts have created policies and have negotiated contractual agreements with bargaining units, that impede an equitable level of parental participation in site-based models of shared decision making; therefore be it
- Resolved, That the Delaware PTA and its constituent organizations advocate for legislation, policies, and bargaining agreements that protect the right of parental involvement in site-based shared decision making; and be it further
- Resolved, That the Delaware State PTA and its constituent organizations advocate for models of site-based decision making which provide for equitable participation among parents, students, community members, principals, teachers, and other staff and which promote an environment in which parents are valued as essential partners in their children's education and development.

Submitted by the Executive Committee of the Delaware State PTA
January 27, 1998

RESOLUTION

PARENT INVOLVEMENT IN SITE-BASED DECISION MAKING

Whereas, One of the Objects of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers is “to bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the education of children and youth”; and

Whereas, Article III(d) of the National PTA Bylaws states “the PTA organization shall seek to participate in the decision making process establishing school policy”; and

Whereas, It is the role of the Delaware State PTA to encourage parental involvement, an essential part of the PTA mission, by promoting an environment in which parents are valued as a primary influence in their children’s lives and essential partners in their children’s education and development; and

Whereas, The State of Delaware has created legislation, and some school boards and school districts have created policies and have negotiated contractual agreements with bargaining units, that impede an equitable level of parental participation in site-based models of shared decision making; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Delaware PTA and its constituent organizations advocate for legislation, policies, and bargaining agreements that protect the right of parental involvement in site-based shared decision making; and be it further

Resolved, That the Delaware State PTA and its constituent organizations advocate for models of site-based decision making which provide for equitable participation among parents, students, community members, principals, teachers, and other staff and which promote an environment in which parents are valued as essential partners in their children’s education and development.

Submitted by the Executive Committee of the Delaware State PTA
January 27, 1998